When two Navy SEALs working on a secret NSA mission are murdered, NSA agent Will Smith sets out to protect the men's daughter. He believes the shooter's motives lie within their special, classified operation. Returning to the scene of the crime, he joins forces with an unlikely ally: a CIA analyst and retired Navy SEAL. Together, they form an uneasy alliance to stay one step ahead of a cunning enemy who will do anything to get his hands on the two Americans' highly classified information. Film from Regency, Warner Bros. Pictures. (R) -Blindness (2014) Cast: Andres Muschietti, Sara Aid, Eric Walters, Maddie Hasson, Rebecca Benson, Daniel Radcliffe, Alistair Petrie. A newly blind man comes to the aid of a student who is being attacked. In a desperate act, he grabs her attacker, accidentally killing him. Fearing his own life is in danger, he travels to the school where the incident took place and flees to the safety of his home. There, he attempts to remain hidden, while making sure his friend and the girl remain safe. In his efforts, he finds an unlikely ally in a young blind girl who is attracted to his charm and kindness.
